

MAP READING FLUENCY LEVERAGING DATA TO BUILD FLUENT READING STRATEGIES

These workshops will help you get the most out of your MAP data

Learn how to analyze MAP Reading Fluency data to determine next steps to move students along in their literacy learning journey. Then explore key reading fluency lesson structures and instructional strategies to support students, while incorporating those learnings into lesson plans to optimize student outcomes.

This 6-hour session with two follow-up coaching sessions provide a deep understanding of both MAP Reading Fluency data and the strategies that will improve reading fluency skills for students. The two coaching sessions will provide opportunities for successful implementation and deeper learning to ensure both teachers and students will benefit from these sessions.
