

SPRING 2024

Professional Learning Opportunities

This flyer provides an overview of professional learning opportunities offered statewide for teachers, teacher leaders, coaches, and administrators in Maine. These opportunities include virtual workshops and on-demand recordings. In this document, you'll find a list of the professional learning offerings, along with dates and times for each session. Session descriptions can be accessed on the registration landing page. Registration is required for all virtual workshops and virtual seminars. Upon registration, links for all virtual workshops and virtual seminars will be provided.

Virtual workshops

Virtual workshops are 60 minutes in length and delivered by a facilitator to a live audience. These workshops are offered on a first-come, first-served basis and have a maximum capacity of 40 participants. In a virtual workshop, participants will be able to engage and collaborate with the facilitator and other participants using a variety of virtual tools, such as chat, audio, and breakout rooms.
